

Cross-reference table

GMP B1 2006 version 28 March 2008 and

GMP B1 2006 draft version February 2009

In the following table there are references from the current GMP+ standard GMP B1 2006 version 28 March 2008 to the draft version of the GMP+ standard GMP B1 2006 version February 2009.

The tables provide general references to corresponding requirements in the standard specified. The references are also not exhaustive. Parts of certain requirements may also be included in other articles of the new standard. In order to obtain insight at the detailed level into the changes, you should always first go through the complete new standard. No rights may be derived from the use of this table.

Note: the numbering in the draft version is not completely consecutive.
This will be modified in the final version.
